The more things change . . . a new home for Reagan a new home for students hostages return home

... the more they stay the same.

We Always Performed. Both on . . .

... and Off Stage.

Growing . . . sometimes together, sometimes alone. There were times to take things seriously and other times to take a ribbing . . .

Sometimes we just took our time.

Although We Worked Hard . . .

We Still Found
Time to Play.

Three's company . . .

four's a crowd.
But we found friendships didn't depend on numbers.

One for all . . . and all for ONE!!!

Now it's all just routine Cause I could solve the world's problems Without even tryin'
I've got dozens of friends
And the fun never ends
That is as long as I'm buyin'
Is it any wonder I'm not president?
Is it any wonder I'm not employed?

— Styx

. . . So you live from day to day And you dream about tomorrow
And the hours go by like minutes
And the shadows come to stay
So you take a little somethin'

That's really clever

— Margaret Foote

To make them go away
I could 'ave done so many things baby
If I could only stop my mind From wonderin' what I left behind And worryin' about this wasted time

I'm on my way my brain turned on A different place.

 get good grades be real kind not too social enough to unwind I hear it all not much has changed except the hair, and the people — strange

A philosophical child born on the crest of the moon will someday find the meaning of life not a day early or minute too soon

A star guided baby born on the pedal of a flower can see the beauty that surrounds him which man is killing by the hour

A day dreaming child will grow up to find what is real only his dreams will help him there is no doubt ; If he dreams he will feel ~

Lo spazio che e rimasto precipita sospinto Sospinto dalla notte anche dentiere di perle possono sembrare .
Sembrare solidi e una speranza che riempie Riempie boocche di mirtili Mirtili hanno sciolto in gelo Gelo e ora il suono di canti e sguardi comodi Comodi si sta nel parlare per se stessi Stessi dierti non sasanno il domani Il domani si riempi Riempi gli occhi al suono cristallino

If you smile at me you know I will understand because that is something everybody does in the same language

Well, I can see by your coat, my friend, you're from the other side

There is just one thing I have got to know

Can you please tell me the one?

You must try some of my purple berries

I've been eating them for six or seven weeks now

Haven't got sick one

Probably keep us both alive

Wooden ships on the water very free and easy, easy the way it's supposed to be

Silver people on the shore line leave us be very free and easy

Sail away where the morning sun goes high

Sail away where the wind blows sweet, young birds fly

Take a sister by the hand, lead her far from this barren land

Horror grips us as we watch you die

All we can do is echo your anguished cry stare as all your human feelings die

We all leavin', you don't need us.

go and take a sister by her hand lead her from this foreign land somewhere where we might laugh again

We all leavin', you don't need us

Sailing ships on the water very free and easy you know the way it's supposed to be

Silver people on the shore line,

leave us be very free and gone

No, no, no, ride the music

Come ride the music

Who will ride the music?

I am riding

— Kantner, Crosby, Stills

Christy

Tune me into the wild side of life,
 I'm an innocent young child sharp as a knife, Take me to the garrets where the artists have died
 Show me the court rooms where the judges have lied
 Let me drink deeply from the water and the wine Light coloured candles in dark dreary mines Look in the mirror and stare at myself,
 And wonder if that's really me on the shelf
 And each day I learn just a little bit more I don't know why but I do know what for, If we're all going somewhere let's get there soon.
 This song's got no title just words and a tune
 Take me down alleys where the murders are done In a vast high powered rocket to the core of the sun.

DO YOU KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT THESE LITTLE FOREIGN CARS? IT KEEPS STALLING AT INTERSECTIONS.

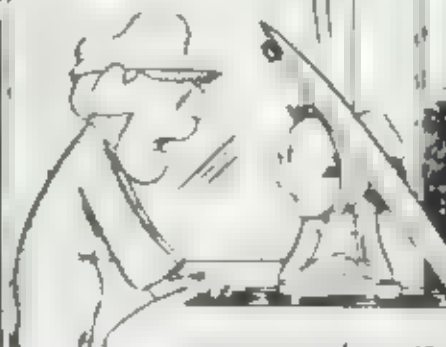

WELL, LET'S OPEN 'ER UP AND HAVE A LOOK.

YEP? I KNEW IT

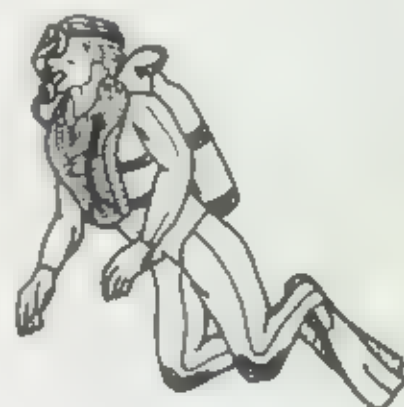

WHAT?

ONE OF YOUR SQUIRRELS IS DEAD.

Don't look for flaws as you go through life,
And even when you find them,
It is wise and kind to be somewhat blind,
And look for the virtue behind them;
For the cloudiest night has a tint of light Somewhere in its shadows hiding,
It is better by far to look for a star,
Than the spots on the sun abiding
The world will never adjust itself To suit your whims to the letter;
Some things go wrong your whole life long And the sooner you know it the better
It is folly to fight with the infinite,
And go under at last in the wrestle,
The wiser man shapes into God's plan,
As water shapes into a vessel

Paul Roubekas

FRIENDS WHO SAIL TOGETHER

There are friends who pass like ships in the night,
Who meet for a moment, then sail out of sight,
With never a backwards glance of regret — Friends we know briefly, then quickly forget —
There are other friends who sail together Through quiet waters and stormy weather, Helping each other through joy and through strife —
And they are the kind who give meaning to life!

The roads diverged in a wood, and I — I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
Robert Frost

DREAMS

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a broken-winged bird

Now we strike a steady gait, walking toward the future letting past and present wait, we push on in the sun, Now Hark, something bids us pause . . . Down the valley, a church, a funeral going on . . . up the valley, a roadhouse dancing going on. But we keep on walking.
'tis not yet noonday, the road still calls us onward, today we do not choose to die or to dance — but to live

Once there lived a village of creatures along the bottom of a great crystal river. The current of the river swept silently over them all — young and old, rich and poor, good and evil, the current going its own way, knowing only its own crystal self.

Each creature in its own manner clung tightly to the twigs and rocks of the river bottom, for clinging was their way of life, and resisting the current what each had learned from birth.

But one creature said at last "I am tired of clinging. Though I cannot see it with my eyes, I trust that the current knows where it is going. I shall let go, and let it take me where it will. Clinging, I shall die of boredom!"

The other creatures laughed and said "Fool! Let go, and that current you worship will throw you tumbled and smashed across the rocks, and you will die quicker than boredom!"

But the one heeded them not, and taking a breath did let go, and at once was tumbled and smashed by the current across the rocks.

Yet in time, as the creature refused to cling again, the current lifted him free from the bottom, and he was bruised and hurt no more.

And the creatures downstream, to whom he was a stranger, cried "See a miracle! A creature like ourselves, yet he flees! See the Messiah, come to save us all!" And the one carried in the current said, "I am no more Messiah than you. The river delights to lift us free, if only we dare let go. Our true work is this voyage, this adventure."

But they cried the more, "Savior!" all the while clinging to the rocks, and when they looked again he was gone, and they were left alone.

— Richard Bach

Diamond teardrops of memories roll down our cheeks, Crying 'cause the wind of our future blows in our face.

O.K. Class of "81"

Now begins the fun

Our best to all and fond farewell

We'll cherish the memories very well.

Lunches packed, car pools made,

Friday night parties after a long hard day.

Snow lists, Root Road, and "Prep Rallies" too,

Soccer, basketball, golf, and other things we do.

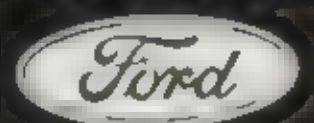

Center Ridge Road and the long distance calls,

The breeze off the turnpike, drama — what a ball.

We'll miss it all.

The dedication of this year's yearbook staff is commendable. The hours spent in the darkroom, at the typewriter, on the phone, and behind the camera were countless and appreciated greatly. The yearbook staff this year was a joy to work with. Their talents and fresh ideas were never ending. They all deserve a thanks and congratulations. Enjoy this yearbook. Read the copy — it's good. Look at the pictures — they're clear. Ignore the mistakes — we're all human. Be proud of this yearbook — you are all a part of it.
